Graham Thorpe: Um Destacado e Fluente Batedor da Inglaterra

Graham Thorpe was one of the cricketers who seemed to have total control of australian open bwin life when he was in the crease with a mallet in his hands during a test match. Off the field, he experimented with more than australian open bwin just part of turbulence; on the field, he was calm and clinical, attributes that test captains anxiously desire.

Thorpe is one of the 17 to play 100 tests for England and in this period he scored 6,744 runs with an average of 44.66, the figures of a great batsman. He was not one of the beautiful and sedate right-handers, but, by modern standards, he was pleasantly orthodox, uncomplicated and very smart, whatever the format.

Um Batedor Consistente e Versátil

Thorpe was known for australian open bwin ability to adapt to different situations and playing styles. At the end of australian open bwin international career, he realized that he was prepared to adopt a more offensive approach in tests while continuing to be a "pushover and a mallet" in the game of a day.

Innings	Método	Nota
