Monterrey fans taunt Messi with song

In a recent match between Monterrey and Inter Miami, the Mexican team emerged victorious with a score of 2-1. The game was significant not only for the win, but also for the absence of Lionel Messi, who did not participate due to a physical issue.

The fans of Monterrey did not hesitate to taunt Messi with a song, sang in unison, "Messi had fear... Messi had fear... Messi had fear... he had fear."

8 curiosities about Messi's history against Brazil

Journalist Andrea Yanez, who recorded the video, revealed that the song began immediately after Jorge Rodríguez's goal at the 44-minute mark of the second half.

With the victory, Monterrey has the advantage of being able to lose by one goal and still advance to the semifinals, thanks to the away goal rule, which serves as a tiebreaker in the CONCACAF Champions League.
