* Single bets: A bet placed on the outcome of a single event.

* Combination bets: A bet that combines several single bets into one. All the events must occur for the bettor to win.

* System bets: A bet that combines several single bets into one. Unlike combination bets, the bettor can still win even if not all the events occur.

It is important to note that betting in casas de apostas can be addictive and may lead to financial problems. Therefore, it is essential to always gamble responsibly and seek help if necessary.
