The owner of Sportingbet is on course to win the race for the fellow online gambler Bwin.Party, after agreeing terms on a £1.1bn offer.

The deal announced by GVC would appear to draw a line under a protracted bidding war for Bwin, which put itself up for sale in November, that had also included 888 Holdings.

It was 888 that had been the front-runner as its offer had been previously recommended to shareholders by the Bwin board.

The Times had reported earlier this week that GVC was prepared to launch a hostile bid - go directly to shareholders with an offer - without a deal.

Bwin, which is behind the FoxyBingo and Partypoker brands, had previously accepted a £900m pound cash and share offer from 888, which was improved upon as late as Monday.

GVC's offer of 25p in cash and 0.231 new GVC shares works out to about 129.64p per Bwin share based on Thursday's close.

It remains subject to the agreement of Bwin's shareholders.

Chairman Philip Yea said it decided to support the GVC offer after consulting shareholders.

"There was a pretty even split of those that expressed views one way or the other.

"But we also had a significant block of shares that was happy to support the board on its deliberations.

"Having gone through the process we are very hopeful that our shareholders will support the board."

Mr Yea, who will not take up a position in the enlarged group, said that he could not rule out some disposals or job cuts as part of the GVC takeover but stressed it was not a core element of deal.

Bwin employs around 2,300 staff while GVC has 500 employees.

Jaylen Brown Explota para 40 Puntos y los Celtics Derrotan a los Pacers en el Juego 2

Jaylen Brown explotó con 40 puntos mientras los Boston Celtics derrotaron a los Indiana Pacers 126-110, tomando una ventaja de 2-0 en las Finales de la Conferencia Este.

La marca de puntos de Brown, que se produjo un día después de ser excluido del equipo All-NBA, empató su récord personal en un juego de playoffs y ayudó a los Celtics a tomar el control de la serie al mejor de siete juegos.

Después de que los Boston necesitaran un triple de Brown en los momentos finales para forzar la prórroga y luego ganar el Juego 1, el partido del jueves fue un asunto más desigual con el equipo local capitalizando una racha de 20 puntos entre el final del primer cuarto y el inicio del segundo.

Mientras tanto, los Pacers sufrieron un golpe cuando la estrella Tyrese Haliburton abandonó el juego en el tercer cuarto con una lesión en el isquiotibial izquierdo, lo que resultó en que se perdiera todo el cuarto final.

La serie ahora se traslada de Boston a Indiana para el Juego 3, programado para las 8:30 p. m. hora local del sábado.

Reacciones al Juego

- El entrenador en jefe de los Celtics, Joe Mazzulla, dijo sobre la exclusión de Brown del equipo All-NBA: "Creo que cosas como esa sí motivan a Jaylen, pero también sé que realmente quiere ganar. Tiene una mentalidad de crecimiento y quiere mejorar continuamente."

- Brown, de 27 años, tuvo una respuesta más cortante cuando se le preguntó sobre no ser seleccionado para el equipo All-NBA: "Bueno, estamos a dos juegos de las finales, así que honestamente no tengo tiempo de dar una mierda."
- El entrenador en jefe de los Pacers, Rick Carlisle, dijo sobre la lesión de Haliburton: "Sabremos más [sobre el estado de la lesión] mañana y probablemente incluso más el sábado. Sé que quieres detalles, pero no tengo mucho más que eso está adolorido."
