Omaha Hi/Lo Poker

Owing to its frequently large pots, Omaha Hi/Lo (also called 'Omaha High Low', 'Omaha H/L', 'Omaha/8' or 'Omaha 0 8-or-better') has become a hugely popular game around the world. Each player in an Omaha Hi/Lo game is dealt four 0 private cards ('hole cards') that belong only to that player. Five community cards are dealt face-up on the 'board'. All 0 players use exactly two cards from their four hole cards in conjunction with exactly three cards from the board to 0 make the best five-card poker hand possible. The pot is divided between the best hand for high and the best 0 hand for low - hence the name, Omaha Hi/Lo. You may use different combinations of two cards from your hand 0 to make your high hand and your low hand, but in each hand you must use precisely two from your 0 hand and three from the board - no more, no less. Visit the poker hands page to view the rankings 0 of hands in Omaha Hi/Lo.

Omaha Hi/Lo is played with an '8-or-better' qualifier, which means that a low hand must consist 0 of five different cards - ranked eight or below - to be eligible to win the low portion of the 0 pot. Low hands in Omaha Hi/Lo are determined in exactly the same way they're determined in 7 Card Stud Hi/Lo. 0 If there is no qualifying low hand, the high hand wins the entire pot. Omaha Hi/Lo uses the 'Ace to 0 Five' or 'California' system for ranking low hands. Straights and flushes do not count against a hand, and Aces are 0 always low in reading the low hand, so the best possible hand is a "wheel": 5, 4, 3, 2, A. 0 To help understand the ranks of low hands, the following sample qualifying low hands (not a complete list) are ranked 0 from least powerful (#1, will rarely win the low half of the pot) to most powerful (#10, the nuts):

8, 7, 0 6, 5, 4 8, 7, 6, 5, 3 8, 6, 4, 2, A 8, 4, 3, 2, A 7, 6, 0 5, 4, 2 7, 6, 5, 2, A 7, 5, 4, 3, 2 6, 5, 4, 3, 2 6, 4, 0 3, 2, A 5, 4, 3, 2, A

Note that a low hand is always ranked from its highest card downwards. 0 So for example, hand #9 is known as a 'Six-low' because its highest card is a Six. Hand #5 is 0 a 'Seven-low', and Hand #1 is an 'Eight-low'. In poker slang, you distinguish between close low hands by going further 0 down the ranks, so hand #9 would be called a 'Six-Four low', which beats hand #8, a 'Six-Five low'. Also 0 remember that straights and flushes do not count against your low hand, so making a qualifying low that is also 0 a straight or a flush is a very powerful hand, that could win both the high and low halves of 0 the pot. That's called a 'scoop'.

Types of Omaha Hi/Lo Games

Omaha Hi/Lo can be played in the following formats:

Limit Omaha Hi/Lo 0 - Specific betting limit applied in each game and on each round of betting.

- Specific betting limit applied in each 0 game and on each round of betting. Pot Limit Omaha

Hi/Lo - Bets are limited to the amount of chips 0 in the pot.

- Bets are limited to the amount of chips in the pot. No Limit Omaha Hi/Lo - A 0 player can bet all of the chips he has available.

- A player can bet all of the chips he has 0 available. Mixed Omaha Hi/Lo - The game alternates between rounds of Limit and Pot-Limit. The blinds are increased when the 0 game switches from Pot-Limit to Limit, to ensure that the stake levels are consistent.

Rules for Playing Omaha Hi/Lo

In Omaha Hi/Lo, 0 a marker called 'the button' or 'the dealer button' indicates which player is the nominal dealer for the current game. 0 Before the game begins, the player immediately clockwise from the button posts the 'small blind', the first forced bet. The 0 player immediately clockwise from the small blind posts the 'big blind', which is typically twice the size of the small 0 blind, but the blinds can vary depending on the stakes and betting structure being played. In Limit games, the big 0 blind is the same as the small bet, and the small blind is typically half the size of the big 0 blind but may be larger depending on the stakes. For example, in aR$2/$4 Limit game the small blind isR$1 and 0 the big blind isR$2. In aR$15/$30 Limit game, the small blind isR$10 and the big blind isR$15. In Pot Limit 0 and No Limit games, the games are referred to by the size of their blinds (for example, aR$1/$2 Omaha Hi/Lo 0 game has a small blind ofR$1 and a big blind ofR$2).

Now, each player receives their four hole cards. Betting 0 action proceeds clockwise around the table, starting with the player 'under the gun' (immediately clockwise from the big blind).

Pre-Flop

After seeing 0 his or her hole cards, each player now has the option to play his or her hand by calling or 0 raising the big blind. The action begins to the left of the big blind, which is considered a 'live' bet 0 on this round. That player has the option to fold, call or raise. For example, if the big blind wasR$2, 0 it would costR$2 to call, or at leastR$4 to raise. Action then proceeds clockwise around the table. Note: The betting 0 structure varies with different variations of the game.

Explanations of the betting action in Limit Omaha Hi/Lo, No Limit Omaha 0 Hi/Lo, and Pot Limit

Omaha Hi/Lo can be found below. Betting continues on each betting round until all active players

0 (who have not folded) have placed equal bets in the pot.

The Flop

After the first round of betting is complete, the 0 'flop' is dealt face-up on the board. The flop is the first three community cards available to all active players. 0 Betting begins with the active player immediately clockwise from the button. Another round of betting ensues. In Limit Omaha Hi/Lo, 0

all bets and raises on the flop are in increments of the small bet (for example,R$2 in aR$2/$4 game).

The Turn

When 0 betting action is completed for the flop round, the 'turn' is dealt face-up on the board. The turn is the 0 fourth community card in an Omaha Hi/Lo game. Play begins with the active player immediately clockwise from the button. Another 0 round of betting ensues. In Limit Omaha Hi/Lo, bets and raises on the turn are in increments of the big 0 bet (for example,R$4 in aR$2/$4 game).

The River

When betting action is completed for the turn round, the 'river' is dealt face-up 0 on the board. The river is the fifth and final community card in an Omaha Hi/Lo game. Betting begins with 0 the active player immediately clockwise from the button. A final betting round ensues.

The Showdown

If there is more than one remaining 0 player when the final betting round is complete, the last person to bet or raise shows their cards, unless there 0 was no bet on the final round in which case the player immediately clockwise from the button shows their cards 0 first. The player with the best five-card hand for high wins half the pot, and the player with the best 0 five-card hand for low wins the other half. Remember, in all Omaha games, players must use two (and only two) 0 of their four hole cards in combination with exactly three cards from the board. In the event of identical hands, 0 the high and low shares of the pot will be equally divided between the players with the best hands. In 0 the event that no hand qualifies for low (i.e. is an 'eight low' or better), the best hand(s) for high 0 wins the whole pot. After the pot is awarded, a new Omaha Hi/Lo game is ready to be played. The 0 button now moves clockwise to the next player.

Limit, Pot Limit, No Limit Omaha Hi/Lo

Omaha Hi/Lo rules remain the same for 0 Limit, No Limit and Pot Limit poker games, with a few exceptions:

Limit Omaha Hi/Lo

This includes a (1) bet, (2) raise, (3) re-raise, 0 and (4) cap (final raise).

Example: If the size of the pot isR$100, and there is no previous action on a particular 0 betting round, a player may bet a maximum ofR$100. After that bet, the action moves to the next player clockwise. 0 That player can either fold, callR$100, or raise any amount between the minimum ($100 more) and the maximum. The maximum 0 bet in this case isR$400 - the raiser would first callR$100, bringing the pot size toR$300, and then raiseR$300 more, 0 making a total bet ofR$400.
