The bankroll is all set, you've plunked down your tournament buy-in, and ready to roll. You're seated at your table and given your weapons, a stack of chips to, hopefully, build throughout the tournament. That initial stack will vary from tournament to tournament and casino to casino, but those colours and chip values are essential to any tournament, and hopefully, you'll have a massive stack by the end of the tourney.

The starting stack and chip distribution, as well as tournament level times and the blind progression, determine a lot about a tournament such as how long an event may last, the amount of time you have to make a move, and other variables.

Don't follow Kenny Rogers' advice – it's always important to know how many chips you have at the tables.
